

Master's in International Cooperation and Humanitarian Aid

Holders of this badge will be able to perform the following ROLES within Humanitarian Aid programmes:

- Coordinator of interdisciplinary teams in humanitarian aid projects.
- Director of project management offices.
- Technical advisor.
- Programme officer.

They have these specific COMPETENCIES to:

- Conduct needs evaluations.
- Define technical activities.
- Prepare projects and Abbreviated Project Documents.
- Manage funds from institutional donors.
- Conduct follow up and write up reports.
- Produce guideline and methodological documents.
- Manage finance and administration.
- Supervise the work of technical teams.
- Manage offices.
- Include different approaches and apply international guidelines in interventions.

Earned by: Jamal Al Dhubaibi

Issued by: Kalu Institute

Issued on: 16.12.2022

Expires on: -

Criteria: Open criteria

The badge earner has successfully completed the Master's in International Cooperation and Humanitarian Aid which includes the following contents:

PROJECT MANAGEMENT I: LOGICAL FRAMEWORK APPROACH

- The Logical Framework Approach
- The Project Cycle, Indicators and External Factors
- The European Union Project Cycle Management Manual and other manuals

PROJECT MANAGEMENT II: PROJECT MANAGEMENT AND IMPLEMENTATION

- Accountability
- Needs Assessment
- Abbreviated Project Documents
- Monitoring the emergency project by means of Reports
- Monitoring long term projects by means of AOPs and Reports
- Coordination: Coordination of Activities & Coordination among Institutions
- Fundraising
- Methodological Documents

- Film Forum: The Yugoslav Wars

PROJECT MANAGEMENT III: MISSIONS AND OFFICES IN THE FIELD

- Administration and budgeting: Administrative regulations of an international donor & European Union Humanitarian Aid project contract management regulations - ECHO FPA
- Human Resources Management
- Staff security in field operations and conflict zones
- Logistics

SECTORS OF HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE, THE SPHERE PROJECT AND THE UNHCR EMERGENCY MANUAL I

- Food Security, Nutrition and Livelihoods
- Public Health
- Water and Sanitation
- Design of temporary shelter and Refugee Camps

SECTORS OF HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE, THE SPHERE PROJECT AND THE UNHCR EMERGENCY MANUAL II

- Cash transfer
- Humanitarian Protection
- Advocacy
- Education in emergencies

THE INTERNATIONAL LEGAL FRAMEWORK

- Origin of current humanitarianism and international legal framework for humanitarian action
- International Human Rights Law
- International Humanitarian Law
- Legislation on refugees and internally displaced people, and Disaster response legislation
- Film Forum: The origins of current Humanitarianism, the creation of the Red Cross and International Humanitarian Law

CROSS CUTTING APPROACHES

- The Gender-Sensitive Approach and Humanitarian Programmes
- Environmental issues
- Rights based programming
- Childhood and Youth
- Disabilities
- Building local capacities

ETHICS IN HUMANITARIAN WORK AND IN DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

- Humanitarian identity and basic humanitarian principles
- Evolution of humanitarian principles
- Codes of Conduct
- Other initiatives to improve humanitarian programme quality
- Film Forum: The genocide in Rwanda

LET'S TALK ABOUT SOLIDARITY

- Wealth and poverty
- Development: Theories and Measurement
- Cooperation strategies
- Voluntary work
- The World Bank and the Poverty-Reduction Strategies
- Governance and Development

DISASTERS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

- Natural disasters as global phenomena
- The reduction of risk as a necessary approach

- Types of disasters
- Learning to Manage Disasters

This is a continuing education course, and was given with an e-learning methodology with tutors.

KALU Institute received HPass Certified status on Dec 18th, 2019 and has been verified by an external review as meeting the Humanitarian Learning Standards.

Issuer Information

Issuer Description: Kalu Institute is a registered NGO in Andalusia (R-0278) and a National Association (595169) constituted in Spain under Law 1/2002.

Our aim is to strengthen humanitarian response through training aid workers, developing and disseminating highly applicable research findings, and supporting innovative technologies within the sector.

Issuer Website: <http://kaluinstitute.org>

Issuer Contact: kalu@kaluinstitute.org

This issuer is endorsed by:

HPass

<http://hpass.org>

07.02.2020

Kalu Institute received HPass Certified status in January 2020 and has been verified through an external review as meeting the Humanitarian Learning Standards. This Certification demonstrates that Kalu Institute meets global best practice in implementing learning within the humanitarian sector. More information about the Standards is available on the HPass website.

<https://my.hpass.org/app/badge/info/75787>